Hi Phil =

Glad to hear you are feeling better, it sounds like James has been making many changes & not all for the better. The flights to Europe were very expensive & scheduling the the new owner complicated so unfortunately I will not be able to join you in Barcelona

Make sure you are well clear before the Boss arrives or he will try to pull you back in or at the least just give you a hard time. Spending time in Prague sounds like a great idea for you & Myla to relax & unwind

What travel itinerary did Allan approve for your return to NZ

Let's keep in touch, I miss you guys

Hi Dave

I have finally got around to returning your mail. With all the 6 hour bridge watches, being sick and the slow internet it has been a challenge although I have been kept up to date thru Myla.

We are still coming to the boat probably until tuesday 13 so if you can manage to get to Barcelona after that it would be great to catch up. I am now taking antibiotics and feel much better. Keep in touch (best thru Myla's mail), and let us know the possibilities. We are hoping at some stage to travel around a bit, maybe to Prague.<=p>

The 5 day HELM course is required for USCG License holders so you may not be required to complete the same course upgrades as me

Best check with Blue Water in Antibes before you travel to NZ

Some of the U.S. student on the HELM course have traveled from Saudi Arabia to be on the course

The gap to complete the additional STCW courses for US Licenses is 1 Jan & classes in Florida are filling fast so best check into courses before leaving Europe
