Hey Lesley,

B

Here as promised is a quick synopsis of my conversation with Jeffrey.

B

1) $22,446 is to be wired to my personal account today:

B

Account No [REDACTED]

Routing No: [REDACTED]

Account Name: John OSullivan

Bank Address: [REDACTED]

B

2) Columbia
debt of $59,933

B

Jeffrey said that he would take this debt on and pay it directly. He said he planned to try and negotiate the debt down. Is there a way that we can formalize that Jeffrey is taking on the responsibility to pay my student debt? I don't believe Columbia will allow me to simply assign the debt to a third party, so I remain legally liable to pay the debt until such time as the debt is cleared. B

B

The Columbia University contact for my student account is Leah Young b lbve already spoken to her to give her permission to discuss my account with your office and she's expecting a call. Her contact details are:
