It appears she may no longer be in the South Florida area. What would you like us to do?

FYI 5-14-11

Bill, we spoke yesterday (5-13-11) after I had checked @ the Key Biscayne US Post Office concerning the FOIA letters I had delivered to them on Wednesday. The FOIA requests were for Bany forwarding address / information they had for [REDACTED] [REDACTED] relating to her recently staying @ the Grand Bay Hotel (430 Grand Bay Dr.)

and the more historical indexing of her @ 600 Grapetree Dr.

B

I met yesterday with one of the day supervisors who was aware of the FOIA's. She told me she was unaware of the request re Grapetree Drive. Anyway, she had spoken with the carrier who delivers to 430 Grand Bay Hotel and accordingly the USPS had a record of a request made by [REDACTED] sometime in early April asking that the USPS hold all of her mail until April 30, 2011. However, Sarnoff did not provide a "forwarding" address. The supervisor told me the USPS carrier had inquired at the hotel on this past Thursday and was told they also had no forwarding address, but that she ([REDACTED]) may have "gone back north". The hotel-concierge did not know where. According to the hotel she was staying with unnamed persons at the hotel. I was also told by the USPS supervisor they have never heard from [REDACTED] or received any correspondence from her and have now since May 1 st have been returning her mail back to the sender.

With regards to the Grapetree address, that's a different driver for that location but likely there was some mix up getting with him to ask about any forwarding information. As a reminder her data records reflect she was last using or associated with that address back in August 2010. Regardless it was left that the supervisor would call me Friday afternoon after she spoke with that driver but she never called. I'll follow up Monday by going there if needed to get an answer and not wait for them to call.
