I don't know how well you know Jeff Greene. I would VERY MUCH like to be the one who introduces him to the Democrat leaders in south county. I am meeting with Howard Weiss, a lawyer in Boca who controls the condo palm card vote and influences all clubs, including the one where your mom used to live. His daughter married the son of one of the Tisch brothers. It may not be doable because of the powers that be in the county, but the presidents of all the Democrat clubs in the county know me and like me because of my work in judge campaigns. I am going to a meeting with Howard Weiss at lunch today about a probate case and to meet with the Dem. presidents in South Co. about some judge candidates. Will not mention it today.
