I thought long and hard about our conversation this morning.. I do not want to have a repeat of our past misunderstandings. mistress , girlfriend,, either title. unlike 99% of men I know after our relationship broke, due in large part to your outrageous behavior. you continued to receive generosity from me. most men in similar circumstances never would have given you a dime. not a dime.. you failed repeatedly to live up to our agreements , continued on a path of your own making, violated almost every rule we ever agreed, and then look back , without accepting responsibility for your actions. and think , but I got shortchanged. You cannot continue to believe that no matter what you do, no matter how you behave you deserve to be financially supported. that is not the real world.. you find yourself in this crazy predicament solely because you have not done a good job, and lived up to your obligations. solely.. it is easy to blame others. your expectations of what you should get for what you do , is out of whack, I am sorry. However you have been very responsible with Robert. I want there to be no misunderstandings. I appreciate what you are doing. I have repeatedly been there for you. what I hear from you is that He /she . didn't keep their word . this is over and over, . Lets talk tomorrow.
