Dear Jeffrey,

Three Quick notes-

1. I hope you saw my reply to you from last Saturday morning. You e-mailed me a note at about 6am. I replied at about 8 with details based on recent meetings at MIT with Seth Lloyd and Scott Aaronson on your behalf towards doing the "cryptography in nature" meeting. Encouraging news.
2. I can be available this Friday to talk by phone. Any time good for you?
3. FYI, a super book has just been published that I think will be of interest to you. Also, the author will be of interest. He is an absolutely brilliant young historian of science and additionally is a popular media figure in Israel: Oren Harman. Oren is based at Bar Ilan in Israel. I met him about a year ago in Tel Aviv. He is wonderful. His book follows on from one or two impressive articles he published in The New Republic a few years ago that caught my attention. The title of the new book is: "The Price of Altruism: George Price and the Search for the Origins of Kindness."

Allbest,

Charles Harper
