How are you?

I hope everything goes well and that u had a good weekend.

I just finished the interview, I stayed 45 minutes to talk with the HR director. She asked many questions about modeling, she was very curious...she has a daughter my age. I believe I did good, a 7 on a scale from 1 to 10. I didn't know all the details about the products, since I never ate them...and she suggested until my next interview with the marketing team to eat all the products, and know them very well. She asked about what type of salary am I expecting. I said I don't have high expectations, I just need to pay the rent. She thought that I want a financial job when she saw my CV, and in a way that made me think a bit if I wouldn't be better with numbers than innovative ideas. Until next interview I'll make some research about the products, and as soon as I know when it is I'll let you know.

Of course she asked how do I know Mr. Lynden, she was very curious. I just said through a common friend in the states. And then she said in a very nice way that I'm really lucky that I got to meet her for this interview because it is quite difficult. I definitely was aware about this, and I said that I'm very grateful that she saw me.

I hope everything will go well next time.

Big kisses
