

To: [REDACTED]
From: Jeffrey Epstein
Sent: Mon 8/2/2010 7:38:58 AM sat morning I came into your room, I told you , my brain was not working. YOu said we should spend time alone. I agreed and said yes we will sunday. Then when you came in, to the dining room, we both with our heightened sense of distrust. saw the other renegeing on a deal. you thought I had decided against being alone, I thought you had decided at the last minute to change the understanding that we had only minutes before. We have serious issues , they should be discussed like friends. not letters left in the bathroom , from a bad spy movie. or emails in the middle of the night. I understand your frustration. and encourage you having fun. (hopefully more than me) . I love you and suggest you fly with us. If not. I am still there for you.

--

The information contained in this communication is confidential, may be attorney-client privileged, may constitute inside information, and is intended only for the use of the addressee. It is the property of Jeffrey Epstein Unauthorized use, disclosure or copying of this communication or any part thereof is strictly prohibited and may be unlawful. If you have received this communication in error, please notify us immediately by return e-mail or by e-mail to jeevacation@gmail.com, and destroy this communication and all copies thereof, including all attachments.