It's our PO box address we set up to receive mail after moving the office to 301 so we didn't have all the mail coming directly to 301. The only credit card you have in your name which is billed to this address is an NES visa. Story had to use this credit card on amazon because using your Amex which has a billing address in the virgin islands wasn't allowing purchases; you have to have a continental US billing address for amazon.
