

To: [REDACTED]
From: Jeffrey Epstein
Sent: Thur 7/30/2009 3:49:01 PM
Subject: Re: training

doggy stockade... ,, getting it done, it has been weeks, how long will each take, what are the costs. what is involved,, does it mean you have to go to the training facility if you choose the first.. if you would like help getting a simple thing like this done, you need to ask the right questions. re dvd,s i asked you to get me a list,, you called me from the store and asked was it fast and furious.. why is it so difficult for me to simply get what i ask for

On Thu, Jul 30, 2009 at 11:39 AM, [REDACTED] > wrote:

I called the training place that the store recommended. They are booked until september but the guy offered to come do an evaluation lesson and see if he can fit her in. He said he needs to do it at the house so he can see where she lives and how she behaves at home so he can fix it. Is it ok to have him come here? He could do it at 11.30am tomorrow.

This is their website; <http://www.onblondepet.com/MartinPictures.html>

Otherwise I can send her to the doggy 'stockade' tomorrow. The salon owner said they did a good job for few of their clients too so it would be his second choice.