Joe Doran received the lights and would like to come install them. He said that the job will take a full day. He has some new lights to put up and he will be taking the light fixtures out of the ground. The light fixture will be removed but the boxes and ballasts on the back wall will be left as is. Joe would like to start at 8am. I informed Joe that no workers are to be at the house before 10am. He wanted me to ask you if he could work behind the wall until 10am? He was going to come today but today did not work with our schedule.

Can Joe come at 8 or 10?
