Jeffrey,
George Reestra just called me, he has a possible buyer for our Sikorsky,, he informed me that Sikorsky has at least 2 green S76C++ for sale in their inventory priced at 11.5M reduced price ready to go into completion, according to George, similarly equipped to ours, I would imagine not including the 275K WiFi option we are getting, since we are the first to receive it.
George thinks this buyer may be willing to pay 12M due to our delivery schedule being Dec 14th, 2009,,Sikorsky can only promise an Oct, 2010 delivery of their Green helicopters.
-George is unsure how serious this buyer is on purchasing a new or possible used helicopter from him. He mention to me if you wanted to do a quick deal, he would take a 150K commission since our profit would be considerably less than the Randy Learner deal.
FYI: we are paying $11,650,000.00 for our current machine, (I need to confirm that price, but I think I'm correct).
please advise if you are interested in this?

thanks,
Larry
