Jeffrey,
For your approval,
We are scheduled for Oct 26th input date for inspection:
Larry Morrison and myself have selected FlightStar in Jacksonville to complete the Heavy "C" and Aux fuel tank STC installation that will complete the Boeing fuel system. I have included two other bids for this maintenance as price comparison for base "C" check inspection, squawks will be additional and quoted during inspection as they are found. I believe FlightStar's knowledge and history of our aircraft is reflected in their price quote: (down time
4 weeks+ estimate)
-FlightStar: $299,302.00 (50% deposit up front only).
-Timco (Lake City Fl) $$406,115.00 (required full payment up front).
-Commercial Jet (Miami Fl) $579,398.00 (full payment up front).
I would like your permission to wire $150,000.00 to Flight Star as input deposit?
Is this approved?
Thank you,,
Larry V.
