The missing piece of the broken "device", salaciously described in the report as a purple "sex toy", found during the search of Jeffrey's garbage and then officially referred to in the police report (pg 26) as "commonly used for vaginal or anal stimulation" was the only single corroborative item found. This purported "device" turned out to be nothing more than the broken handle of an ordinary serving salad spoon. Remember this if your asked to dinner at the home of the police chief.
