Yeah exactly
Spin traps better than antioxidants which take the elements totally out of the game (as water).
I think we do more damage by removing them than recycling them.
Spin traps fun to think about.

dont' confuse lack of spin trap knoweldge with science,, it is mere engineering. its the theory of why so many free radicals. their various roles, a necessary but troublesome component. ITs the theory that is fun, are the radicals physical , or eletrical hooks , are they merely to catch , like fish, help combine like legos. , better question what to the COST of FREE radicals. sounds like a d
