Dear Jeffrey,

Paris was a wonderful weekend spent working with an interesting American family Bank who are after some help in the Middle East; a gap in their geographic coverage.

I've been doing so much travelling this year that I can't keep up with myself (30 countries in the last 4 months alone). But I am at home now for a couple of weeks to try to re-orientate myself before starting again on 11th Jan.

Have a really wonderful Christmas in the Sun and I hope that we will have a chance to catch up in 2010.

Thank you again for the use of your wonderful apartment in Paris.
