I spoke with Joe yesterday and made him the $1,000 offer. This morning he responded via telephone and said that $1,000 is not acceptable. I then asked him if another amount a bit higher would satisfy him. He said absolutely not as he is very relaxed that with the Florida lien laws he would be paid in full. I explained to him that he would have to spend money on attorneys and he did not seem to care. He also mentioned that he was very comfortable with how the first bill was paid timely and his various correspondences with [REDACTED] and Story that he had a strong position. Please advise.
