I had previously asked whether you wanted to be in the house with [REDACTED] so you could see for yourself, you have decided that the help I asked for was petty. Can I get you anything, nannys head massage. sue's tea, was not important. though I said these are the small things I appreciate. then when others gladly do as I ask, you feel insecure. you feel no compunction to spoiling my birthday, because you don't like Dana, spoiling my highly anticipated trip to New York, because you overhear me talking on the phone and I according to you, said baby in kind tones. so you threw a tantrum. no sex fun, no hug, you walked out without saying goodbye. and today not only ask me to do as you put it petty, things (petty is trite, trivial, what you asked was for me to transmit your words as they were coming out of my mouth, having me do something I strongly detest, which I did immediately without argument, and even then, you couldn't stop, and had to ask for proof, and then more (and you wonder where the idea that you are a spoiled brat comes from,). I had asked if you wanted a conference call. the fact that you take offense to the way people perceive you, you attribute to me. the fact and I've told you this multiple times, the more I say to defend you and your behavior, the more I say, no, she really is a help, no, she is my girlfriend, you will be seen to be weaker rather than stronger, if I was standing next to you and you told everyone in the most sincere of terms, doesn't Jeffrey look in great shape. would do nothing more that call attention to the fact that I am not, and suggest that I am in need of bullshit.
