i think rubenstein is a nice guy , , not very experienced, and defend against who. what would be the pitch.. We know you have to defend your ownership.. when and to whom . I would rather a third party speak to its benefits. coming from you makes you sound guilty. attempting to justify your greed. You want to do anything that is in the interest in strengthening the economy and protecting the countrys financial system.

Daley and frankel are saying that I need to go on TV (CNBC) to defend our hedge funds.
Thoughts?
