call me... i suggest you say that you have put together an organization called Mothers Army. Mothers , wed and unwed, all religions , races and nationalties share a unique bond. , and we arguably the strongest fighting force in the world. we are in the process of putting together training manuals. , product approvals. and strategic short term and long term goals along with the tactics needed to see them through

Please can you ask your lovely lawyers to trademark Mothers Army For me not just the website but in every category..

I am making the keynote address today at the UN with the boss..! And my subject is women empowerment and gender equality and the role of philanthropy in community. I am mentioning Mothers and unity of them.. And I need Mothers Army to be trademarked before 3pm

If your boys cannot do it, then I will try and find another way..
