I have spent hours trying to explain things to you. 100's of emails. , therapists. psychollogists. etc. nothing worked. I hope that some good comes out of the bad balle situation. Like a drug co using animal experiments in the hope of finding human solutions ., AS your letter states , I was very clear that these decision are yours. I didn;t tell you to limit the amount of money spent on peabo or vets equipt rug cleaners. I believed that it was important that you couldnt in any way blame your ususal suspects, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] for what was likely to happen,. you could n;t blame me , you would have to see that it is your actions, (choosing a vet, that you don't know, not spending time learning about puppies. not asking educated trusted people for advice as to dog hospitals , schools. (the internet gives only data , and little information.),, risks. you do things your way, internet scams , vet scams, cosmetic scams, and continue on your path . you follow the crowd, caring mainly about what others may think. not what i think , not what advice i give, ITS crazy. If I had asked JOJO to teach me slovakian, or consistantly tried to learn it on the internet. and you heard me speak it and laughed and other slovakians heard me speak it while you and they watched me parade my " skills: you will have some understanding of our situation. ADULTs watch how you treat me,and others , and are amazed that you actually belive you are speaking the language correctly . When they comment , you get upset at ME. when they smirk at the equivalent of your pronunication of words they all know well. , you say it is my fault and i should 't let them do it. WHEN i say they hear what I hear see what I see, it is obvious to everyone , except you. you respond that , no, my friend tells me i speak the language fine. I miss my friend that used to allow my freedom , i miss my friend that didn;t have an opnion about things she knows little about, I miss my friend that showed no jealousy, I miss what we had
