Barry,

Many thanks for your email. As soon as I receive the Duchess' signature to the agreement I will forward it to you to hold in escrow pending confirmation of the wire.

I really appreciate your assistance in finalizing this agreement and hope you and Scott have wonderful weekend.

Warmest regards,

Glynna

Glynna: The execution version of the Endorsement Agreement which you circulated this morning is out for signature. As you know, Scott is in Florida and the person at Windmill who must sign is elsewhere, so we are trying to pull the horses together to get it signed and to get the wire sent to your client in London today.

Neither of us knows whether banks are open in London today, and they may not be open on Monday, either. In any event, once we swap signature pages to the Endorsement Agreement, we shall each hold those pages in escrow pending your client's confirmation to you (and you to us) that she has received the US$100,000 advance by wire.

Please forward your client's counterpart signature to the Endorsement Agreement upon receipt. I shall send my client's counterpart signature to you upon receipt.

Kindly acknowledge your agreement with this. Thank you.
