Have to call [REDACTED] doctors asap. Harold is sending her to two new ones tuesday and wednesday. [REDACTED] just emailed- that she still would love to go with [REDACTED]- I do not know if this is wishful thinking...I am so embarrassed about the $13,000 that I am thinking about walking Sunset Blvd in LA tonight to repay you.

I emailed Harold asking him to write a letter re-mental health for insurance and he said the policy does not allow for depression....so I am taking her to Bernie Kruger on this Friday for him to write a letter about sinus infection.... to get insurance....

I will get into this today...asap.

I am in LA at Sunset Tower- Jeff Klein's new hotel (he is boyfriend of John -who was married- Goldwyn- grandson of macho glove salesman Samuel)

I have two days of back to back meetings with every studio and independent distributors...for summer/fall/oscar business.

Bryan Bantry, who manages my company is going to call you later in the week and give you the figures from two years ago, last year and this....

I will keep you posted on business meetings and economic climate out here....
