This is what you helped create.

I am on my way to 100 Centre Street- People vs. Anthony Marshall. I am arriving with Lord Astor, Brooke's nephew that has been supeonered to testify against the idiot thieving son. I will be William "mystery escort" or his "personal assistant" or his "press agent"...or all above....smartly dressed and camera ready. Thinking if coverage makes it back to London, Prince Andrew might find me interesting enough to invite back to Royal Lodge.

Monday night I volunteered to work on Film Society of Lincoln Center tribute to Tom Hanks as a favor to get them to put me on retainer and revamp entire organization....they want me and claim looking for money to pay me- but sat next to Len Blavatnick at the tribute- who wants me to help him in Cannes (yuck) but will make him donate my fee to Film Society...good idea...more importantly- I got 20 directors and stars to attend dinner and tribute Monday night...

Ended up at after-party at Jean-George...balmy night on a terrace sitting around a small table kibbitzing, telling hilarious stories about ourselves (and wishing you could be there and see this for yourself) till 2:30am with BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN, TOM HANKS, Rita Wilson, Jeremy Irons, Geoffrey Rush, Christie Brinkley and ME!!!

What a night.

Miss you..
xoxo Peg
