I met Paula at the Carlyle for coffee yesterday- she is gorgeous and smart and we laughed about the girls....she told me all about her life, her music and her family and could not have more charming.

You have excellent taste in superior people...and beyond beautiful.

As you can see from the email below- we are having a meeting with the girls tomorrow...or trying.

We both shared our total devotion to you and our desire to bring a bit of joy into your life.

Will call you later. Running to beauty parlor. Have noon pick-up with Pepe Fanjul to drive up to Harriman to a casual lunch for 50 under a tent that Gigi and Avie Mortimer are having and a tour of Avie's grandfather's estate "Arden House" that he just restored and bought back from Columbia University.

Isn't it wonderful when three generations build a rail road and become Governor and the fourth drinks it away and low and behold the fifth post-war/yuppie kid gets lucky and makes it all back?

Only in America....
Miss you. Talk later...
I am on cell [REDACTED] xoxo Peg

Mattie/Miasha- Paula and I met for coffee yesterday....and talked about how fabulous you both are...what else would we say?

Can we all meet on Sunday for half an hour?

Mattie and I have a 3:00pm curtain for "West Side Story" on Broadway and 47th Street.

Possibly, we can meet at 1:30pm for a bit....if you girls want to have a quick lunch, we could meet at 1:00pm...

Paula and I will call you both today to set....
xoxo Peggy
