What is going on here? Did you send this?
It appears to have come from my old email but I have not used it in years.

Heeey,

I hope you've had a nice relaxing day like me ;-)

I went for a walk, I red the massage book,

I missed you, I played with my new phone,

I played with my camera, and I wanted to play with you soo much...

....but I ate a Reese's peanut butter cup and I feel better now :-)

I only wish I was lying in bed with you right now.

I was also THINKING about sending you another

"miss you" e-card today, but I thought that you might prefer an n-card instead...

....and showing it to anyone would NOT be funny

Really... ;-)
