By the way, the Asper house at 102 Canterbury Lane which you looked at is under contract. The price is said to be over $30. That has 190' on the ocean by 320' and around 16,000sf. The contract goes firm on Monday. Ned Monell had it listed at $35. The old Wexner oceanfront at 6 Via Los Incas is under contract at over $19 to Sean Healey of AMG. It was listed at $21.9 (originally at $25+ in 2008). It has 125' on the ocean and about 9000 sf. Moens has the Saul house at 101 El Mirasol listed at $15 but claims $12.5 will take it. It is a yellow Bermuda 5800 sf one-story on 115' at the end of a cul-de-sac. It abuts 6 Via Los Incas. I've been through it three times and think it is a good buy. It is smallish but an existing 2nd fl staff wing could easily be enlarged. It would be the cheapest direct ocean and in nestled between a $20M (Healey) and a $30M (Asper). There is a lot (Kubani) between it and Asper.

If Asper closes, it breaks the 3+year old glass ceiling of $24M.

I was thinking you'd be in FL this weekend or next week. I dont think I can be in NYC next week but I could the week after that - say after the 23rd. Will you be in NY that week or inFL anytime soon?
