Subject: One more , I know what I am doing , others agree, your views don't carry weight.. i have years of the same with different words

This is why I asked to have these conversations face to face but you delay, cancel, avoid and my patience ran out. It's my fault. I am disappointed you find it so hard to believe that I could be doing something right, but I see a difference, other people around me see it and I feel pretty good about my progress. I finally have a great understanding of who I am, who I want to be and what I need to work on. So while I am aware there is room for improvement, your email doesn't have much weight at the moment. I know you care
