You must be joking...very long time? It was after july. And it's not nearly as long as 7 years.
I am fed up and unwilling to ignore your inability or unwillingness to keep your word. The fact you have been making many of the same empty promises and deals with other girls makes me feel used and angry.
There were also predictable results for many of your actions that I have not allowed to happen. That does not make you right. And instead of a thank you, you choose to treat me just like one of your bimbos, and now you actually attempt to make my life more difficult.
I don't know what you are thinking!
