Monetary stuff:
Barry eichengreen

Books: globalizing capital
Exorbitant privilege and lots of policy shorter stuff on his website

Go to paul krugman blog and search articles on "reserve currency". "Role of the dollar" etc

Martin wolf "fixing global capital" 2009 book. (He is worlds best economic journalist. Column and blog well worth reading)

History of crises:

Kindleberger: manias panics and crashes
(Book)

Rogoff and rinchart "this time its different". (Book)

Textbooks on macro with empasis on international and monetary aspects:

No math: paul krugman and maurice obstfeld

International economics

Basis for graduate courses: maurice obstfeld and kenneth rogoff "international macroeconomics"

In general smartest guys who think like me are eichengreen krugman (much better on intl than other things) rogoff wolf.

Smartest guys who have different more milton friedman like views robert mundell, ron mckinnon.
