I would tell you that both I and many others that know him, describe him as brilliant. His unique mind is what attracts the worlds smartest people to his home. , There are certainly many people wealthier than he , but few that can think out of the box on such a wide range of topics with such regularity and discipline . Lets not forget, that he is not , and has never been married ,but clearly leads a controversial llifestyle. . 2) My understanding is that he continues to focus on philanthropy in the most esoteric of sciences. as he is both highly fluent and comfortable in the rarefied language of the most cutting edge science. 3) He never really socialized ,seperate from the few events that he would attend ,preferring to stay at his home and host nobel prize winners or captains of industry, providing an opportunity for a relaxed atmosphere,in which and exchange of new ideas could be choreographed . I believe Jeffrey has been a large donor to many causes, I think there is a web site , listing some,of those . I myself am aware of some hospital causes that he has given to , in the highest form of charitable giving- , anonymously,

Here are some questions:

-How would you describe Jeffrey?

-What is he focusing on now that he's out of prison?

-How has his social life and business life changed? Or is it unchanged?

Thank you!
