You mean second in command type rating for a citation? Any flying sounds good to me but last time I talked to LV, he said if I build enough time, he might be able to get me a job flying right seat on a GIV, so a type rating in that would be most valuable. I also had people here ask me if I fly a GIV because they might have work for me..but not without a type rating and more hours. I think the priorities are: 1-Build more multi engine time, 2- Fly 10 more hours on GII to remove the limitation on my license, 3- next type rating or other jet experience...
