I know....but I think Woody needs to SLOWLY meet a few key new culture kids to keep him updated. No one else can do this for him but you and me. He needs to get a feel of what the young creators are thinking....to keep him one step ahead of everyone.

This is just between you and me. xoxo Peg

The backgrounds of all the filmmakers of "The Artist" are very interesting.

Thomas Langmann (the slight 41 year old producer we did not invite, is the son of the late Jewish rich director Claude Berri). Thomas raised and/or spent 15 million for the Michel and the film.

Michel is 44, Jewish and was born in Paris with a name from Lithuania. Berenice Bejo (I think they are really not married, although thru the Oscar campaign, said they are) is also Jewish and was born in Argentina. Michel has two kids from a previous marriage and they have two babies together.

Michel is a tall, lovely, gentle very very smart guy. Berenice is very much his adorable leading lady.

If we get Woody thru this....I have Lena Dunham back in New York to introduce you both too later. She is 26. Did a famous little film, "Tiny Furniture" and has the HBO series "Girls", about 20 year old girls in Brooklyn premiering beginning of April. She is whispered to be a young female "Woodyish" genius. She is the hottest new talent and very hamisha.

Tom Brokaw, Billie Jean King, Katie Couric, Martha Stewart, Bob Balaban, etc. showed up with a few days notice. Nightline covered the whole night and every celeb also filmed a PSA (public service announcement) in a private room during the evening too.
