Obviously the auditors and place of business are fine but I don't believe we can do everything here.

Can we speak today to go through which of these changes you think are absolutely necessary? Sadly we can't wait until coming to the island... because Solina wants to have gotten definitive document - as approved by you - by Thursday night London time. And our first deal closing date is February 10th.

Let me know when you're available later today to go through the document and thanks again for your guidance at this important juncture.
