

To: Ian Osborne [REDACTED]
From: Jeffrey Epstein
Sent: Wed 3/14/2012 12:31:00 PM

I am your friend, first second and third , I will help you all I can.. Your recent investment redline is so opaque and poorly drafted, that I was not sure where to begin. I do not want to hold up your timetable but want to do things together. As the others jacobs dad included have agreed this letter I suggest you close with them and leave me out. you and i could if you want do the same deal alongside , or if too much for you, not do it at all. my not being part of your group might bring other benefits anyway. , but really, this agreement is goofy, it now talks about 75 percent BY NUMBERS of the investors . I have no idea what this term is supposed to mean. , once the money was invested , the directors have little to do. except sell. go ahead close without me,, I am not annoyed its just that it is clear that this side of your business needs LOTS of thought.

--

The information contained in this communication is confidential, may be attorney-client privileged, may constitute inside information, and is intended only for the use of the addressee. It is the property of Jeffrey Epstein

Unauthorized use, disclosure or copying of this communication or any part thereof is strictly prohibited and may be unlawful. If you have received this communication in error, please notify us immediately by return e-mail or by e-mail to jeevacation@gmail.com, and destroy this communication and all copies thereof, including all attachments. copyright -all rights reserved