I enjoyed spending time with Sarah so thanks for that but you have made me feel extremely unwelcome and uncomfortable on the island. I have never seen you treat any of your guests this poorly.

I was friendly and funny on the plane...no bad mood even after witnessing what most would agree, would easily justify a bad mood. I was perfect. I wouldn't have walked in if I didn't know you would like it and find it amuzing. I helped with bags and did not treat your guest badly in any way. I could have left to san juan, you told me to stay on lsj. I was still in a pleasant mood and played with the girls.

You never said thanks for flying or helping with luggage, you treated me like air, walked by me without a word, you made a point to be extra pleasant towards everyone else and ignored me, with the exception of 1 sentence, which was to tell me to leave earlier than I need to. I felt so uncomfortable, I chose to stay in my room until 5 minutes before the boat and even then you just walked in and greeted me not by saying good morning, but simply "Oh, you're still here."

That was as far from friendly and welcoming as it gets.
