Jeffrey.. i have been sick for 7-8 days.. past 3 days i am in the bed. I have a virus in my throat. its really bad. past days i can not speak at all!
today i can not even drink. its really swollen. on Monday i went to Justins doctor Harold Bornstein. So since i was taking antibiotics but it didn"t really help. so now doctor is sending my blood for the second test. cause he thinks i could have a more complicated virus. then i would have to be hospitalised. i hope its not true and its negative... cause i book my first job already on Tuesday.
