I am very concerned that after I told you how i thought your group was not performing well this year, and that many of the recommendations were so far off base.. you told me that we were up this year, . this was in response to my critique . you first told me we were up 2 million and then 3 million. . it then turned out that we were down 2.5 million,, for the year.. Im not sure why you think that YTD,,does not means year to date.
