Jeffrey,

The Bell 407 buyer is asking if we are still interested in selling our 407? they need to move fwd and purchase a helicopter. I know we need to acquire a replacement, but we may loose them as a buyer,.1.8M net to you. please advise is I should inform Australian seller we are firm on 2.5M delivered to Miami?

I just heard from Jim Abbott, Wayne Hysingha's helicopter pilot that Mr H is going to sell his 2006 Bell 430 with 800 hours in the next year, maybe longer, he is placing an order for a new EC155, could be 14 months till it is available for sale, price for his 2006 Bell 430 is going to be $4.2M expecting to ask price, just FYI.

2000 Bell 430 re-cap in Australia:

- current counter offer from seller on the 2000 Bell 430 in Perth with 1270 hours, is $2.5m closing in Perth.
- our expense to fly 13 hours to Sydney for air shipping,
- our expense to obtain US C of A $20,000 high estimate
- our expense to ship $160,000

recent Bell 430 deals:

Darren Rothell's 1996 Bell 430 with 3278 hours sold for $2.0M
Seminole Tribe's 2002 Bell 430 with 1370 hours rumored at $3.2M

thank you,
Larry
