hi jeffrey,
sorry i couldnt work on saturday but i didn't feel good, i felt dizzy and week.. and sorry, i dont know if you noticed but the painting i've sketched on flag pool cabana has a mistake. is missing a part in the bottom with some dots... in fact when i put the drawing on the wall i fallowed that bigger print for more accurate proportions, i didnt noticed that in that print were missing the dots in the bottom side. only when i started to put the colors on the wall, when i got to the bottom side of the wall i notice that the dots are missing... i dont know if you are fine with that...somehow that side will be covered by sofa and other pieces of furniture... we might need to play with the dots anyway because of the sofa..., or maybe we can do the missing part on the floor(?) or we can erase and redo again everything, its not going to take too much time but then those parts on the side walls which are now 16 inches, will be smaller probably like 12 -10 inches.. but better talk tomorrow in front of the painting...

i was thinking for tomorrow in case the venetian plaster and that ultramarine blue for cillax bathroom arrived, to work first on that bathroom and finish it and then concentrate at the painting at the flag pool cabana.. that is more complex work..
thank you,
ion
