Rooms, especially suites for TED, are difficult if not impossible for near the TED Conf. being held at the Westin.
I called the Westin (which Sarah says everyone thought was the best hotel last year) I am told they are fully committed. I asked that someone in their "Group Sales Dept" please call me re a suite or a room for TED...the only way you can book a room there is through the TED website (which is now closed because TED is sold out)

The Marriott Renaissance Long Beach had only Standard Rooms available. I went ahead and booked 2 Standard rooms for you because I am concerned we will get nothing if I don't take action. I requested them to be connecting. I spoke to the sales manager there and she said due to TED they have no suites. Your rooms are booked from Feb. 27-March 2.

Last year you stayed at the Long Beach Hyatt. We were able to get this room through Pritzker's office. The Long Beach Hyatt has no suites and and no rooms available if you are just a regular person wishing to book a room. If you are registered for TED you can book a room through the TED website, but we are not registered so i cannot get in to try to book you a room. The reservationist could not tell if any rooms are available through TED. WOULD YOU LIKE ME TO CALL PRITZKER;s OFFICE and see if THEY CAN GET YOU A SUITE?
