I completely agree and I'm really sorry that you had to wait me nearby store yesterday but you wrong , I never think only about myself ,especially about modeling now , after a lot of conversations . Yes I was stupid , I messed up last night but not because i'm selfish , lazy or do not want to help you , sometimes I can not think of myself to just a simple things , if you told be before or give me a hint , that I can come in during your dinner- meeting and help to Jojo , it would be even my pleasure ,that I were useful ... I thought I need be dressed up always like that when I'm in your house ,because a lot of ppl coming to you and can see me ,I never wanted you had a hard time because of me ...
