I am not upset with you. I am always happy to fly the gulfstream. I was just talking about all the mushy stuff.

It is odd when you treat me with so much affection; hugs, kisses, sex, sleep, long trips, gifts, wrong things and then simply stop and leave, as if nothing happened...or as if I was Russian. It is the stopping that doesn't feel so good, so I only ask you not to do those things anymore unless you have intentions of not stopping. I have been asking you the same question about your reason/intentions since the first trip in order to manage my own expectations. I tried to make it easy for you to get out, but without an answer I am left to interpret your actions, which is nearly impossible. All I am saying now is that this is the last exit, if you are not planning to go any further, this is the stop.

PS: If you would still like to talk, after 3.30 is fine for me. I'll be home.

I am very sensitive to not in any way imposing upon you, or making you feel uncomfortable.. so I am clear, do you not want to fly the gulfstream anymore:? whatever you want is ok
