Josh the terrible is back. And he is playing othello tonight... Can we all meet you so that he feels better about it? May be after the weekend?

He is not in good mood today. Toms thing doesn't seem to work the way he planed. And I saw charles (not that I planned, just happened)... And josh got crazy about it, called me sneaky russskiy (for being honest and telling him the truth)...

I can definitely get out from home on monday! I have NUY visit, but can leave early morning. 10am?
