We were talking about you at lunch. Nat asked if Josh was familiar with your business strategy. Josh said that I know you. I replied that I had an honor of knowing you and being a member of the team. And that you are the most brilliant person I know (then I had to say that Josh and you are the most brilliant men I know)

Funny - peter said "nat and me know Jeffrey, I like him, Nat does not". Nat said " it s not true, i like him" . Peter talked very nicely about you.
