Subject: Yesterday's Article in the LA Times - Libya rebels desperately short of funds

Jeffrey:

FYI.... attached see yesterday's LA Times article

Again, the National Transitional Council is in desperate need for funds and humanitarian aid (in the form of donations and more importantly credit, secured by sovereign guarantees) to keep things together until frozen funds are released. So any assistance would earn valuable good will to donors and those who arrange it. It is a real opportunity and should be taken seriously.

Sincerely,
Greg Brown
