Hi Jeffrey,

Thank you very much for the time off to deal with my sister's arrangements.

I just spoke with Una who has worked for FTC for the past 8 years. She will have all three of her sons in college at the same time come August. Her husband has been furloughed for the foreseeable future under the Austerity Measures the Government has imposed. She would like to know if she can borrow $5,000 to cover her shortfall this year (she has some lump sum payments to make) and she would repay it by deducting $100 per pay period from her paycheck. Let me know if this is OK.

With warm regards,

Cecile
