My dearest Jeffrey,
I miss you and think of you often. Its a pity that I do not get to see you one last time before I move out of the city.
Thank you for the apartment next week!! I'm sure [REDACTED] explained that I have to paint the walls back to white after the movers have taken my furniture.
You know me - I love color.
I remember you telling me your best friend lives in Dallas..... I hope that means you will come visit! Now you have 2 friends to visit in Dallas.
I told [REDACTED] that if yall ever need help in the kitchen at the ranch, just holler! It would be a fun excuse to see yall and make sure you're eating well.
As always, my prayers are with you!
Hope to see you soon..
I send you lots of love
