Maria, from Brad Edwards office called me back...she said Brad is out of the office all day today and she cannot reach him by phone...she said she will try to get the message to him about meeting for breakfast tomorrow (you think its a good idea they meet, 10am, restaurant of his choice, PB or Ft. Laud) [REDACTED] said she knows Brad's schedule is full tomorrow with prior engagements and she doesn't think he has anytime available. I asked that she please try to get the message to him and let me know what he says...

(Just FYI-I asked Maria if she is Brad's assistant. She said she is a paralegal there and she works on some cases with Brad, depending on the case. She said [REDACTED] is the receptionist)
