the plot thickens.

[REDACTED] is thinking of coming back for 9 months. please don't repeat that, even to [REDACTED]. i know [REDACTED] knows that but i just don't want this spread around via me, or getting back to [REDACTED] or [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] says [REDACTED] is too mean to be a ceo (plot calling the kettle...uhhh) and that he needs to be more huggie and sunshiney to the outside world. [REDACTED] argues that it's about innovation and making good products (he thinks like steve jobs...focus on deliverables and good stuff not the social side of things). or i guess...make something people want and you don't have to be huggy.

they are also considering a weird model akin to what it used to be with a CEO and a strong CTO (the manager like [REDACTED] and the technical person like [REDACTED], back in the day). [REDACTED] might fit the CTO job.

process slowed bc person on the board running the search just derailed his own company and is a little distracted since now the sharks smell blood and are circling. his company likely to implode.

how are you?
